

What is God Like?

Imagine that one of your closest friends was asked to write a paragraph that describes you. Your friend wasn't allowed to describe you physically (e.g. brown eyes, tall, etc.), but could only describe the things you do and your character. What would they write about you?

---

---

---

---

HOW DO WE LEARN ABOUT GOD?:

In the Bible we learn about God through _____ and _____.

GOD'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY:

Exodus 3:7-10 – What do we learn about God from this passage?

---

---

Job 38:1-18 – What do we learn about God from this passage?

---

---

2 Corinthians 5:18-21– What do we learn about God from this passage?

---

---

1 John 4:7-10 – What do we learn about God from this passage?

---

---

ASKING THE RIGHT QUESTION:

When reading the Bible, my first question should always be:

---

---

REFLECTION: - Psalm 119

Turn in your Bible to Isaiah 40. Once there, read verses 12-31 and then, once you've finished reading, consider the picture of God presented in that passage. How would you summarize Isaiah's depiction of God here?

---

---

---

Take a few moments and write out a prayer to God, celebrating his character, thanking him for revealing himself and for his other actions in your life, and asking him to reveal himself even more as you study his Word.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

What is God Like?

Imagine that one of your closest friends was asked to write a paragraph that describes you. Your friend wasn't allowed to describe you physically (e.g. brown eyes, tall, etc.), but could only describe the things you do and your character. What would they write about you?

---

---

---

HOW DO WE LEARN ABOUT GOD?:

In the Bible we learn about God through _____ and _____.

GOD'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY:

Exodus 3:7-10 – What do we learn about God from this passage?

---

---

Job 38:1-18 – What do we learn about God from this passage?

---

---

2 Corinthians 5:18-21– What do we learn about God from this passage?

---

---

1 John 4:7-10 – What do we learn about God from this passage?

---

---

ASKING THE RIGHT QUESTION:

When reading the Bible, my first question should always be:

---

---

REFLECTION: - Psalm 119

Turn in your Bible to Isaiah 40. Once there, read verses 12-31 and then, once you've finished reading, consider the picture of God presented in that passage. How would you summarize Isaiah's depiction of God here?

---

---

---

Take a few moments and write out a prayer to God, celebrating his character, thanking him for revealing himself and for his other actions in your life, and asking him to reveal himself even more as you study his Word.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---